

system for all services under Rate Schedules IT and MCS and under a new rate schedule, Rate Schedule MBA. CNG proposes to provide firm transportation and storage service at market based prices under Rate Schedule MBA, in conjunction with Rate Schedules FT, GSS, GSS-II, and OSS for new contracts under those rate schedules with a primary term of less than five years (i.e., all new contracts for firm services under these rate schedules with a term of less than five years and all extensions or roll-overs of existing contracts with a term of less than five years). Thus, CNG states that it does not propose to implement market based rates for the primary term of existing long-term agreements. CNG does propose to implement market based prices for all short-term services (i.e., short-term firm transportation service, and services under Rate Schedules IT and MCS) immediately upon Commission approval.

CNG states that copies of the filing have been served upon its affected customers and interested State Commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's rules and regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Compliance Filing

July 3, 1997.

Take notice that on June 30, 1997, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation

(Columbia) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following change effective August 1, 1997:

Third Revised Sheet No. 456

Columbia states that this filing is being made to comply with the Letter Order of the Commission dated June 11, 1997, in which the Commission directed Columbia to file a separate tariff sheet at least 30 days prior to August 1, 1997, to incorporate GISB Standard 4.3.6 by reference. Columbia is also correcting a typographical error in the listing of the GISB Standards incorporated by reference in Sheet No. 456 to reflect accurately that GISB Standard 4.3.14, Version 1.0, will be complied with. This standard was incorrectly referred to as "4.3.4".

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Crossroads Pipeline Company, Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

July 3, 1997.

Take notice that on June 25, 1997, Crossroads Pipeline Company (Crossroads) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Tariff Sheet No. 76.1. Crossroads asserts that this filing is being made to comply with the letter order of June 18, 1997, which accepted Tariff Sheet No. 76.1 for filing and directed that it be refiled at least 30 days before the August 1, 1997 effective date.

Crossroads states that the purpose of its filing is to reflect changes to its tariff to implement as of August 1, 1997 the Internet Web Standards approved by the Gas Industry Standards Board and incorporated into the Commission's regulations.

Crossroads states further that copies of the filing were served on its current firm and interruptible customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to protest this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the Commission's Rules and Regulations 18 CFR 385.211. All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken in this proceeding, but will not
